

Press Release

Today on 17th of Feb 2022 Department of English organised an on-the-spot intercollege essay competition on the topic “India is the Largest Successful Democracy in the World”.

At the outset, Prof. G.M Mir, Head Department of English, welcomed all the participants and presented his valuable opinion about the significance of the event. The Essay competition was formally inaugurated by worthy Principal Prof. Dr. Salma Ahad. All the senior faculty members were present on the occasion.

A total number of 14 students from different colleges participated in the competition

After the stipulated time of 40 minutes the essays from the students were collected back and were evaluated instantly by the nominated jury comprising of faculty members from different language departments. Subsequently the following students were declared as first three position holders.

1st. Bazila Bilal, Govt College for Women MA Road Srinagar

2nd. Misbha Qayoom Govt Degree College Women Sopore

3rd Junaid Mohammad Govt. Degree College Sopore

After the announcement of the three position holders, the event concluded with the vote of thanks presented by Prof. Nasir ud Din Assistant Professor English.

Prof. Shamsul din
Media Secretary