

REPORT

“One Day Seminar on Motivational challenges of New Generation”
Organised by IQAC and College Career Counselling Cell on 17.04.2019 at College Auditorium Hall.

1. The event was convened under the chairmanship of the worthy principal, Prof. Farooq Ahmad Malik.
2. One day workshop was conducted at college auditorium in which more than 200 students from the streams of Science, Arts, Commerce and Business Management participated.
3. In the inaugural session of the event worthy Principal Prof. Farooq Ahmad Malik stressed upon choosing right career path and identifying key personal and career goals.
4. The gathering was addressed by Prof. Tariq Ahmad Wani who shared his vision related to successful individual in the present modern world.
5. Prof. M.Y. Khan from Commerce Deptt. also shared his thought regarding the challenges faced by present generation and how to overcome those challenges.
6. In the last session of the event, question answer session was organised in which students asked questions related to their career, education and institutional support required to achieve goals.

The vote of thanks was presented by Prof. Tariq Ahmad Wani

Convenor
Career Counselling and Placement

Coordinator IQAC

