

REPORT

Report on one day online programme on “World Conservation Day” on organised by IQAC on 28.07.2020.

1. One day online programme on “World Conservation Day” on organised by IQAC on 28.07.2020 at college hall was conducted under the Chairmanship of Prof. Farooq Ahmad Malik worthy Principal.
2. The worthy principal highlighted the relevance of the event and said World Nature Conservation Day is observed on July 28 every year. The day marks the importance of nature and environment. Special awareness campaigns are organised worldwide to acknowledge that a healthy environment is a foundation for a stable and healthy human society. World Nature Conservation Day assumes significance as the main purpose is to conserve resources that play a pivotal role in protecting Earth. The objective behind observing World Nature Conservation Day is to introspect as a species how humans are exploiting nature. The rise in global temperature is causing an imbalance between nature and humans. It gives rise to various diseases and leads to disasters like floods.
3. Prof. Nusrat Aziz said that the history of World Nature Conservation Day is still not known but the important aim of celebrating the day on July 28 is to educate and aware people of the best practices that can be adopted to protect our natural resources. Earth's resources are under tremendous strain due to human activities. Conservation and preservation of biodiversity is essential for the restoration of our planet.
4. Prof. Shamsu din said that the world is turning towards not just protecting large species and forests, etc. but degraded habitats and ecosystems as well. Let's remember that every little effort on our part can have a monumental impact in protecting nature.
5. Prof. Tariq Ahmad Wani highlighted that World Nature Conservation Day recognizes that a healthy environment is important for a stable and productive society.

The vote of thanks was given by Dr. Owais Charag, he thanked all the participants in the event and expressed his sincere gratitude to the convening committee.

