Earning while learning

Report

On 30 September 2023, the debates and cultural committee of the college organized an event under the ambit of Gandhi Jayanti. The event envisaged imparting the idea of earning while learning thereby bringing home the concept of economic independence.

This event exclusively pertained to the idea of "Earning while learning" and was targeted at a student audience. Students from different semesters showcased their products at self-made stalls.

Faculty members and students bought various commodities from the stalls. The worthy principal visited the exhibition alongside some senior faculty members.

Among other things, the Kashmiri Pashmina shawls made it to the stalls and were the main attraction of the therein.
