FIRE SAFETY/MOCK EXERCISE AWARENESS PROGRAMME

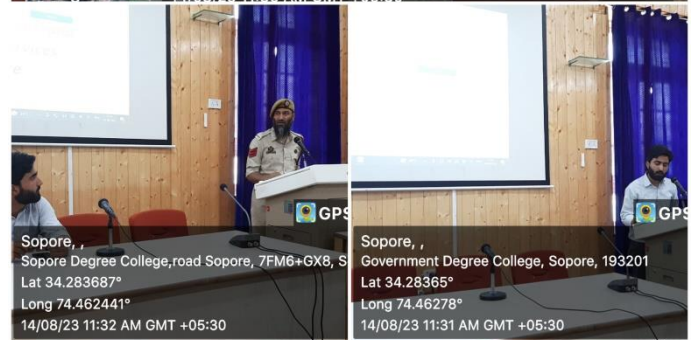

Today on 14th of August 2023 under the aegis of Meri Maati Mera Desh and Azadi ka Amrut Mahotsav an awareness programme on Fire safety/mock exercise was conducted. The programme was organized by NSS of the college under the patronage of College Principal Prof (Dr.) Salma Ahad in collaboration with Fire and Emergency Service Station Sopore.

At the outset of the programme Prof. Suhail Abdullah Malik formally welcomed the team of Fire and Emergency Service and highlighted the importance of such programmes in the face of growing fire incidents occurring across the valley.

It was followed up by the extension lecture given by Mr. Ghulam Mohd Hajam (leading fireman) from the respective department. The expert deliberated on the factors behind the occurrence of fire incidents and what could be the possible precautionary measures for mitigating such incidents. He emphasized on installation of smoke detectors, fire alarms and fire extinguishers across colleges, schools, houses, shops for being prepared in the wake of any fire incident. The expert also shared his expertise with the students in relation with the fire rescue operations.

Afterwards on field demonstration was carried out in which the respective department demonstrated about various rescue lifting and fire extinguishing techniques.

The students enthusiastically participated in the event. The programme concluded with the vote of thanks presented by NSS programmer officer Prof. Suhail Abdullah Malik.
