

Report

Painting competition under the ambit of UT Foundation Day 2023.

Today on 25th of October 2023 a Painting competition under the theme “corruption free and poverty free future” was organised in the conference Hall of the College. The event was organised by the NSS units and Debates and cultural Committee of the college under the patronage of worthy Principal Prof.(Dr.) Salma Ahad. At the outset of the programme Dr Zahoor Ahmad Makhdoomi, NSS programme officer extended warm welcome to the faculty, students and then deliberated upon today’s theme “Corruption free and poverty free future”.The Event witnessed a good number of students who expressed their ideas and thoughts on the said critical subject through painting. The purpose of the programme was to generate awareness about the corruption and its ill effects on the society. Participants made enlightening posters to create awareness about the cause. Participants took part with zeal, and demonstrated noticeable talent. Although the students conveyed the message of anti-corruption in a more visual way, they did not only use images but created a fusion of imagery and quotations. As a result, the posters were eye-catching, and memorable. They spread the message of anti-corruption in a dynamic and practical manner. Towards the end of the programme certificates were distributed among the participants. The paintings were judged by a panel of Jury including Dr. Zahoor Ahmad Makhdoomi, Dr Aabida Quasar, Dr Mudasir Ahmad Shah, Dr Iffat Bashir and Dr Mudasir Basu. The first position was secured by Afreen Janwari 3rd Semester, second position by Nasir Aarif 3rd Semester and 3rd position by Sehreen Mehraj 1st semester of the college. At the conclusion of the event vote of thanks was presented by Dr. Aabida Quasar, NSS programme officer in which he expressed gratitude towards the College Principal, faculty members, students and technical staff in making the event possible.