REPORT

STARTUP FESTIVAL

Innovation and Incubation cell of the college in collaboration with Department of Botany, Economics and Management Studies organised Start-up Festival for the students of the college. The festival aimed at to promote innovation and entrepreneurship among the youth. The festival featured stalls of food, crockery, jewellery, games, art and craft. Students showcased their products to a wide range of audiences. The event provided students with opportunities to interact with each other and learn about the start-up ecosystem. The activity fostered an idea of competition and students got personalised guidance. The platform helped start-ups overcome challenges and accelerate their growth.

AIM OF THE ACTIVITY

Students gained insights into the start up ecosystems, including the challenges and opportunities that come with entrepreneurship. Students had the opportunity to connect with like-minded individuals, potential collaborators and mentors. The festival provided students with knowledge and skills necessary to succeed in the start up world. These resources can help start-ups overcome challenges and accelerate their growth.

KEY HIGHLIGHTS

Students showed their innovative products and services, demonstrating the potential for growth and investment. Principal of the college Prof Bashir Ahmed Parray and experienced faculty members from Botany, Economics and Management studies shared their knowledge and valuable insights to aspiring start up founders. The festival aimed to inspire and motivate students to pursue entrepreneurial ventures, highlighting the potential for innovation and success.
